Why do we collect and use personal information?

We collect and use personal information:

- to meet statutory duties placed upon us
- to protect vital interests
- to safeguard our pupils
- to enable contact

The categories of personal information that we collect, and hold include

- Personal information (such as name, address, phone number, date of birth, proof of identity, photographs)
- Relevant references and signed documentation

- Governors documentation (minutes, pecuniary interests, monitoring)
- governance details such as role, start and end dates)

The General Data Protection Regulation allows us to collect personal information with consent of the data subject, where we are complying with a legal requirement, where processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of a data subject or another person and where processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller. When the personal information is Special Category Information we may rely on processing being in the substantial public interest in addition to consent of the data subject and the vital interests of the data subject or another.

Collecting personal information

Whilst the majority of personal information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with the General Data Protection Regulation, we will inform you whether you are required to provide certain personal information to us or if you have a choice in this. Where we are using your personal information only on the basis of your permission you may ask us to stop processing this personal information at any time.

We routinely hare this information with:
